in his report before the close of the present session, and there is every reason to hope that he will be eventually restored to robust health.

—The Hon. John P. Henderson, Senator in Congress from the State of Missouri, after making an arduous illness, is now slowly recovering, and may be expected to take his seat in the Senate of the United States next week. Senator Henderson's indisposition is due in great part to his inability and exertion with which he attended to his official duties.

—A terrible outbreak of cholera with its attendant horrors, is raging in the city of London, and has already claimed the lives of many persons. Mr. John A. Webster, member of the St. James Theatre, and Dion Boucicault, its agent with a denunciation of Mr. Boucicault's "Fox Chase," Mr. Webster, was called on to deliver a lecture on the subject of cholera, and was warmly received. Nobody is insured against cholera.
